

CONVENTION FUND
NEEDED BY CITY

Business Men Suggest That Council Set Apart Sum Each Year for Entertainment.

BACHE IS ELECTED
PRESIDENT OF POST

Attention Again Called to Necessity for New Bridge Between Manchester and Richmond.
Reports of Officers and Committees Submitted.

NEW OFFICERS OF POST A, T. P. A.

President, W. K. Bache.
First Vice-President, P. L. Reid.
Second Vice-President, R. L. Winston.
Secretary and Treasurer, H. L.
Harwood.
Sergeant, Dr. D. Meade Mann.
Directors—B. H. Randolph, W. H.
Brown, M. W. Moncreur, C. R. Guy, T. D. Stokes, C. C. Reid, Clyde H.
Hatchell, R. S. Christian, Andrew Jamison.

ENDING the most successful year in its history with its thirteenth annual meeting last night, Post A of the Travelers' Protective Association elected new officers, heard interesting reports from those who retired, and discussed in a most optimistic manner the outlook for further work.
The meeting was largely attended and was entirely harmonious. President B. S. Christian called the session to order about 8:30 o'clock, and at once submitted his annual report, which was read by the secretary.
The document showed that the post has borne all expense to date and still has a balance of $21.44. In its treasury there has been an increase during the past twelve months from 714 to 931. During a whirlwind campaign within that period 135 new names were secured in one month. The report states in general terms that the condition of the post is better than at any previous time in its history, and at length its history in connection with the State Fair, the Jamestown Exposition and other public meetings.

To Entertain Conventions.
One of the most interesting and important recommendations of the outgoing president was that the council make an annual appropriation for the entertainment of the various conventions held here from time to time. A plan that was heartily indorsed by Mr. Christian's successor, Mr. W. K.
Bache, upon assuming the gavel. The idea is to have this fund disbursed upon the vouchers of various business organizations of the city.
There were two other important recommendations. One was for an up-to-date bridge between Richmond and Manchester sufficiently strong to allow the Petersburg and other communities to use it, and the other was for an appropriation for improving local water transportation facilities.
These matters were likewise indorsed by Mr. Bache in his brief inaugural speech.
President Christian closed his report by thanking the members, other officers and directors for their co-operation during the year, and by predicting that great benefits would result to the business interests of the city out of the continued activity of the organization.

The president's report showed that the following members had died during the past year: Messrs. J. W. Tribbett, T. D. Young, B. A. Bryant, G. E.
Gregory, C. D. Larus and M. C. Brooks.
Other Reports.
Mr. Bache, who was chairman of the board of directors, submitted the report of that body, which set out at the start that the books of the secretary and treasurer had been audited and found to be in proper shape. Continuing the report, he commented upon the heavy increase in membership, and showed that if the same ratio should obtain during the next year the total number would reach 1,200. One that has been a very active member since he had been in the habit of making donations of $1,500, or more than the total paid during that period into the national treasury.

Secretary Harwood presented his report, which dealt mainly with matters previously referred to by the president and chairman of the board of directors.
The chairman of the various standing committees submitted their reports, but they were largely routine in their nature. The secretary read a list of showing many new members had been brought in by old ones, and when he said, "Hampton Fleming, ninety," there was loud applause. The number dropped from ninety down to fifteen, and was then sealed down as low as one.
Mr. Fleming's record was perhaps the greatest ever made by any member in the State.

Nominations Made.
Colonel John S. Harwood made a brief speech, praising the work of the retiring president, and on his motion the post gave Mr. Christian a rousing vote of thanks.

President Christian spoke briefly in expressing his appreciation and urged that strong live business men be chosen as officers for the ensuing year.
He named the following committee on nominations: Messrs. S. J. Allen (chairman), E. D. Quarles, John C. Hagan, B. H. Ellington and William Jenkins, et cetera.

They reported later, recommending the officers whose names appear above, and who were unanimously elected.
The following chairmen of standing committees were chosen: Membership—Hampton Fleming.
Railroads—Allison E. Marcuse.
Legislation—John C. Hagan.
Employment—John Ellington.
Slick and Keller—William C. Bentley.
Hotels—James H. Grant.
Press—J. M. Bell.

The new president assumed the chair and made much applause. He spoke only a few moments, endorsing practically (Continued on Fifth Page.)

TWENTY ARE INDICTED

Federal Grand Jury After the Ill-fated Distillers—Trial of Angel.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, Va., April 18.—The Federal grand jury which has been in session for the past several days, reported to-day, returning twenty indictments. These are for illicit distilling, and practically every distiller from Franklin county, where moonshine distilling is alleged, have been sprung up like mushrooms, and have been operating in full blast. Recently indictments by revenue officers have been made, and no less than a dozen blockade liquor plants have been broken up. Owing to the fact that scarcely any of the parties indicted at this time of court have been arrested, the indictments have not been made public. The action is in pursuance to an order issued by Judge McDowell.

The second day of the trial of T.
M. Angle, president and general manager of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, was held to-day. The evidence on the government was marked by the presentation of more documentary evidence. Colonel W. H. Chapman, chief of the Revenue Department in Virginia, was on the stand all of the morning. Various official reports covering the operations of the Dry Fork Distilling Company were introduced by District Attorney Moore as evidence. These reports were examined by Colonel Chapman, who testified that they were authentic, and came through the usual routine of his department. The reports extend over a period of several years, and show a daily statement of the amount of spirits that the Dry Fork Company produced. The government has been manufactured, and on which the tax had been paid. A map drawn by a civil engineer, showing the location of the distillery plant and the various departments, was also introduced.
There still remain many reports to be presented. It is expected there will be several days yet before the trial of the government is closed. The alleged frauds will begin. Court adjourned this afternoon until Monday.

WAGON ELEVATOR WILL LIFT TEAMS
UP TO NEW VIADUCT—PROPERTY
ALREADY ACQUIRED COVERS
NEARLY TWO BLOCKS.

Officers of the Concern.

APPLICATION was made yesterday to the State Corporation Commission for a charter for the American Terminal Warehouse Corporation, with a capital stock of $200,000.
The company is organized for the purpose of developing the property bounded by Seventeenth, Eighteenth,
Broad and Clay Streets, and will erect large, four-story concrete, fireproof storehouses for the purpose of renting them to jobbers and manufacturers who desire trackage facilities. The property already acquired covers nearly the entire two blocks.
The scarcity of trackage facilities in Richmond and the central location of this property destined it, officers of the warehouse corporation think, to become a new and attractive wholesale and manufacturing district. Plans are out for the erection of the buildings, and a number of jobbers and manufacturers are negotiating for the rental of the new structures. The City Council has granted the right to run a spur track through the center of the property, and the storehouses will have railroad tracks and a private driveway in the rear.
Arrangements have been made with the company now erecting the viaduct over Marshall Street for the construction of a wagon elevator to lift teams from the property up to the viaduct.
The corporation will conduct a bonded warehouse, and negotiations are now pending for the erection of a large cold storage plant on the property. Offices have been opened at No. 614 Mutual Building. The officers are W. B. West, president; John Garland Pollard, vice-president and counsel; and Eugene Robinson, secretary and treasurer.

THE OREGON ELECTION

Returns Indicate Selection of H. M.
Coke for United States Senator.

PORTLAND, ORE., April 18.—Election returns received to-day indicate the selection of H. M. Coke for the Republican nomination for United States Senator over Senator Charles W.
Fulton, and that W. R. Ellis, incumbent, has defeated former Governor T.
C. Geer and George S. Shepperd for the nomination for representative from the Second District.
W. C. Hawley was not opposed for the nomination for representative from the First District.
Robert S. Bean was nominated for justice of the Supreme Court.
The campaign leading up to the primaries was one of the most bitter ever fought in Oregon, especially in the race for senatorship. Francis J. Heney played an important part in the campaign against Fulton, whom he fought bitterly.

FOR CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Young Married Man Arrested on Complaint of a Woman of Fifty.

WOODSTOCK, VA., April 18.—Charles Dellinger, of Jerome, Shenandoah county, a young married man, was placed in jail here to-day, charged with criminal assault on a Mrs. Delander, of near this place.
She is about fifty years old and married. She alleges that Dellinger, finding her alone, caught her and carried her into the house and maltreated her.
When she returned to consciousness Dellinger was still in the room, and when she made an outcry her brother, who was not far distant, heard her.
Dellinger ran, but was captured by her brother.

YOUNG MAN ENDS LIFE

Philip Meade, Well Known and Popular, Shoots Himself in Chapel Hill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHAPL HILL, N. C., April 18.—The entire community was shocked tonight when it was learned that Philip R. Meade had committed suicide by shooting himself through the mouth.
Mr. Meade had been in a very despondent condition for several days, which is considered as the reason for his rash act.

According to the best information obtainable, the deceased went into the room of Mr. J. W. Markham, over Dunston's barber shop, about 4 o'clock this morning. He had been in the habit of making donations of $1,500, or more than the total paid during that period into the national treasury.
Mr. Meade was a young man of intelligence and refinement. He was about thirty-five years of age and a very fine specimen of physical manhood. He was a son of the Rev. W. H.
Meade, pastor of the Episcopal Church, and was at the time of his death in the employ of the Southern Express Company here.

He was married, and had a young son, and a daughter. His death is being mourned by the community.
The funeral will be held to-morrow at 10 o'clock from the residence of his parents, near the city.

YOUNG STUDENT FROM VIRGINIA
WINS COVETED PRIZE AT SCHOOL
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOSTON, MASS., April 18.—M. L.
Bullard, of Radford, Va., emerged today, his clothing soiled and torn, from a wild fight and scuffle participated in by over 500 students at Technology, the winner of a numbered copy of Technique, one of the prizes for which the students fought. This is an annual event at Tech., and the volumes are highly coveted.

REFEREE WILL RECOMMEND
DIVORCE FOR MRS. VANDERBILT.
NEW YORK, April 18.—The report of referee David McClure, who heard evidence in the suit of Mrs. Alfred G.
Vanderbilt for divorce, is expected to be filed with the supreme court on Monday.
It is believed that the granting of a divorce will be recommended by the referee.

ERECT WAREHOUSES
IN NEW DISTRICT

American Terminal Corporation, With Capital Stock of $300,000, Wants Charter

MANUFACTURERS AND
JOBBER INTERESTED

Wagon Elevator Will Lift Teams
Up to New Viaduct—Property
Already Acquired Covers
Nearly Two Blocks.
Officers of the
Concern.

APPLICATION was made yesterday to the State Corporation Commission for a charter for the American Terminal Warehouse Corporation, with a capital stock of $300,000.
The company is organized for the
purpose of developing the property
bounded by Seventeenth, Eighteenth,
Broad and Clay Streets, and will erect
large, four-story concrete, fireproof
storehouses for the purpose of renting
them to jobbers and manufacturers who
desire trackage facilities. The property
already acquired covers nearly the
entire two blocks.

The scarcity of trackage facilities in Richmond and the central location of
this property destined it, officers of the
warehouse corporation think, to be-
come a new and attractive wholesale
and manufacturing district. Plans are
out for the erection of the buildings,
and a number of jobbers and manufacturers are negotiating for the rental
of the new structures. The City Council has granted the right to run a spur
track through the center of the property, and the storehouses will have
railroad tracks and a private driveway in the rear.
Arrangements have been made with
the company now erecting the viaduct
over Marshall Street for the construction of a wagon elevator to lift teams
from the property up to the viaduct.
The corporation will conduct a bonded
warehouse, and negotiations are now
pending for the erection of a large cold
storage plant on the property. Offices
have been opened at No. 614 Mutual
Building. The officers are W. B. West,
president; John Garland Pollard, vice-president and counsel; and Eugene Robinson, secretary and treasurer.

THE OREGON ELECTION

Returns Indicate Selection of H. M.
Coke for United States Senator.

PORTLAND, ORE., April 18.—Election
returns received to-day indicate the selection of H. M. Coke for the Republican nomination for United States Senator over Senator Charles W.
Fulton, and that W. R. Ellis, incumbent, has defeated former Governor T.
C. Geer and George S. Shepperd for the nomination for representative from the Second District.
W. C. Hawley was not opposed for
the nomination for representative from
the First District.
Robert S. Bean was nominated for
justice of the Supreme Court.
The campaign leading up to the pri-
maries was one of the most bitter ever
fought in Oregon, especially in the
race for senatorship. Francis J. Heney
played an important part in the campaign against Fulton, whom he fought
bitterly.

FOR CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Young Married Man Arrested on Complaint of a Woman of Fifty.

WOODSTOCK, VA., April 18.—Charles
Dellinger, of Jerome, Shenandoah county, a young married man, was placed in
jail here to-day, charged with criminal
assault on a Mrs. Delander, of near
this place.
She is about fifty years old and married. She alleges that Dellinger, find-
ing her alone, caught her and carried
her into the house and maltreated her.
When she returned to consciousness
Dellinger was still in the room, and
when she made an outcry her brother,
who was not far distant, heard her.
Dellinger ran, but was captured by her
brother.

YOUNG MAN ENDS LIFE

Philip Meade, Well Known and Popular, Shoots Himself in Chapel Hill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHAPL HILL, N. C., April 18.—The
entire community was shocked to-
night when it was learned that Philip
R. Meade had committed suicide by shooting himself through the mouth.
Mr. Meade had been in a very despond-
ent condition for several days, which
is considered as the reason for his
rash act.

According to the best information
obtainable, the deceased went into the
room of Mr. J. W. Markham, over
Dunston's barber shop, about 4 o'clock
this morning. He had been in the habit
of making donations of $1,500, or more than the total paid during that period
into the national treasury.
Mr. Meade was a young man of intelligence and refinement. He was
about thirty-five years of age and a
very fine specimen of physical manhood. He was a son of the Rev. W. H.
Meade, pastor of the Episcopal Church,
and was at the time of his death in
the employ of the Southern Express Company here.

He was married, and had a young
son, and a daughter. His death is
being mourned by the community.
The funeral will be held to-morrow
at 10 o'clock from the residence of his parents, near the city.

YOUNG STUDENT FROM VIRGINIA
WINS COVETED PRIZE AT SCHOOL
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOSTON, MASS., April 18.—M. L.
Bullard, of Radford, Va., emerged today, his clothing soiled and torn, from
a wild fight and scuffle participated
in by over 500 students at Technology,
the winner of a numbered copy of
Technique, one of the prizes for
which the students fought. This is an annual event at Tech., and the
volumes are highly coveted.

REFEREE WILL RECOMMEND
DIVORCE FOR MRS. VANDERBILT.
NEW YORK, April 18.—The report
of referee David McClure, who heard
evidence in the suit of Mrs. Alfred G.
Vanderbilt for divorce, is expected to be
filed with the supreme court on Monday.
It is believed that the granting of a divorce will be recommended by the referee.

BRYAN SEES THE LEADERS

Talks With Coler and Others, but Declines to Discuss State Affairs.

GLEN FALLS, N. Y., April 18.—After a long, swing across the Empire State to-day on a trip that recalled the campaigns of eight and twelve years ago, William Jennings Bryan reached here to-night, and after a lecture at the Empire Theatre held a conference with Bird's Coler, president of the Borough of Brooklyn. Mr. Bryan to-day was filled with incidents which were regarded by many politicians who gardered here to-night to confer with him as foreshadowing future political events of moment in the coming presidential campaign in New York State.
Mr. Bryan left Rochester early today, but before he left he had a conference with Peter Keefe, State committeeman of the Independence League, the nature of which was not disclosed.
En route here Mr. Bryan left the train at Albany, where he was a guest of Congressman Martin R. Gynn at Juncheon, after which he left for the city.
He carefully refrained from giving expression to any opinions on State or national issues. He also declined to make any comment in regard to the recent Democratic State convention at New York.

Mr. Bryan would make no statement concerning the political outlook in New York State. Mr. Coler, after a conference with the former presidential Democratic candidate, said: "Mr. Bryan is letting the State run its own business, which is the right thing to do."
The situation with regard to the un-seating of the McCarran delegation was brought to Mr. Bryan's attention by Mr. Coler. It was learned, and Mr.
Bryan was further informed that Senator McCarran had indicated that he might send a contesting delegation to Denver.

Mr. Bryan was enthusiastically welcomed on his arrival here, and more than 1,000 people filled the Empire Theatre to-night to hear the lecture.
The "old world" and its ways, Mr.
Bryan confined himself strictly to the subject of his lecture. In the course of the address he declared that war with Japan was neither a possibility nor a probability.
The political meeting followed the lecture at the Rockwell house, where Mr. Bryan was a guest, and in which he made a speech, in which he declared that Mr. Bryan would be the next President of the United States.

MARKED BY MURPHY

Mack, of Buffalo, Another Democrat to Be Slaughtered.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Norman E.
Mack, of Buffalo, eight years a member of the Democratic committee, is the latest victim marked in the general slaughter of Democrats who are so foolish as to oppose the plans of Murphy and Connors. It is understood that Mr. Mack is to be dropped from the national committee at the Denver convention.
The place will make a fine honorary slaughter for Mr. Murphy's friend, Lewis Nixon, if he cannot land the nomination for Vice-President. Mr. Mack is a double-dyed dinner in the estimation of Murphy and Connors. He won't take orders from them, and he is for Bryan, first, last and all the time, without conditions, deals or dictators.
At his home in Buffalo last night Mr. Mack said that he knew that he was slated for removal, and that he did not care to remain on the national committee unless the Democrats of the State wanted him. He would not accept a re-election by order of Murphy and Connors.

Chairman Connors stopped off in Rochester yesterday to see Mr. Bryan.
The peerless one would not see him except in the presence of other parties.
It was announced by both that they did not discuss any State politics. Connors goes home to face a fight to throw him out of the Erie county organization.

Mr. Bryan is to be in Albany to-day.
He will speak in Glens Falls to-night, and will be in this city Monday.

OHAMA, April 18.—Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, in an interview here yesterday, implied that it was doubtful whether William J. Bryan would remain the "grand old man" of the Democratic party, and intimated that he did not fully credit a report that he would be true, he said, "but we'll wait and see."

DEAD WHILE DRIVING COWS.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., April 18.—Julius Riley, a well-known farmer of Trout-ville, dropped dead yesterday while driving cows near his home. He is survived by his wife and seven children.

WEATHER

Showers early; later clear.

WANT SOUTH TO HELP BEAT BRYAN

Those Opposing Him for Uninstructed Delegations in Several States.

SUGGESTS JUDGE LEWIS
AS TAFT'S RUNNINGMATE

Washington Correspondent of Chicago Paper Proposes Richmond Man—Still Talk of a Third Term for President Roosevelt.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
Munsey Building,
Washington, D. C., April 18.
OPONENTS of the nomination of Mr. Bryan are interested in the report to the effect that Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Louisiana will send an instructed delegation to the Denver Convention. Opponents of Mr. Bryan figure that with these 110 uninstructed delegates from the South it will be possible to make alliances which would defeat the nomination of the statesman from Nebraska and have a very deciding voice in the selection of the candidate.

Three hundred and thirty-five votes will be necessary to prevent Mr.
Bryan's nomination, that being one more than one-third of the total number of delegates of which the convention will be composed. New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maine, West Virginia, Maryland and Minnesota, added to the five Southern States said to be likely not to instruct, will make a total of 335 foot-loose delegates, a total vote for the nomination of whomever they choose.

Bryan Men's Claims.

It must be admitted, however, that there is doubt as to whether the Southern States mentioned will send uninstructed delegations. It is well known, for instance, that the Bryan people are claiming that Virginia will send a delegation instructed for Mr. Bryan. What the other Southern States mentioned will do is a matter of much greater doubt.

The foregoing conclusions have not taken into account the probable action of several other New England States, who will almost certainly send uninstructed delegations to Denver, or will send delegations instructed against Mr.
Bryan.

These figures make it appear as though the nomination of Mr. Bryan, though the probability, will be impossible. Still, Mr. Bryan is regarded as the best bet.

Still Talking Third-Term.

The voice of the third-term boomer is not yet entirely still. Every day or two somebody rises up, either to advocate the renomination of President Roosevelt or to insist that the Chicago convention is likely to do that very thing. In the vernacular of the street there is nothing to it. There is not "chance, or more than a chance, that Mr. Roosevelt will be the nominee.
True, he has not embraced every opportunity to deny that he contemplated being a candidate again, but on such occasions as he has expressed himself he has always, in language as explicit as could be, said that he would not under any circumstances accept another nomination.

Roosevelt Not a Candidate.
It is the opinion of every well informed man in Washington who pretends to know anything concerning the situation and political conditions generally, that Mr. Roosevelt has not the slightest idea of being a candidate for the presidential nomination.
Indeed, it is believed by many that the President has mapped out his work for several years to come, and that executive labors in the White House have no place in his plans. That he is moving heaven and earth to bring about the nomination of Secretary Taft there can be no doubt. That he intends to spend a year or two in foreign travel when his term in the White House has expired is also understood.

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

CANNON EVEN BEATS REED

Leader Williams Sharply Criticizes Him for Manner of Adjourning House.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The action which has developed extraordinary tension, both personal and political, has grown out of the last minute of the session of the House to-day.
Speaker Cannon's action in declaring the House adjourned on the motion of Mr. Payne, of New York, in the instruction which has developed extraordinary tension, both personal and political,
has grown out of the last minute of the session of the House to-day.
Speaker Cannon's action in declaring
the House adjourned on the motion of Mr. Payne, of New York, in the instruction which has developed extraordinary tension, both personal and political,
has grown out of the last minute of the session of the House to-day.

Mr. Williams says that he turned away and proceeded to his committee room, and the Speaker left the House and went to his room. Mr. Williams said Speaker Cannon and he always had been good friends, but that he felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood the Speaker to say something to him, but that he had responded: "This is beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him,
but that he had responded: "This is
beyond a joke."

Mr. Williams says that he turned
away and proceeded to his committee
room, and the Speaker left the House
and went to his room. Mr. Williams
said Speaker Cannon and he always
had been good friends, but that he
felt the Speaker's action in declaring
the House adjourned in the way he had
declared it was an arbitrary action
and left his desk and walked toward
him. Mr. Williams said he understood
the Speaker to say something to him, but that he had responded: